

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT DIGEST FOR ESB 399

Citations Affected: Numerous provisions throughout the Indiana code.

Synopsis: Adjusting census numbers in statutes. Conference committee report for ESB 399. Changes population parameters in various statutes to reflect the population count determined under the 2000 decennial census. Redefines the term "population" as used in Indiana statutes. Revises statutes to reflect the loss of one congressional seat after the 2000 federal decennial census. Repeals a statute that provides that a special census or special tabulation may not take effect during the period beginning when the result of a decennial census is reported to the governor and the first date precinct establishment orders may become effective. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the census data advisory committee.)

Effective: January 1, 2002 (retroactive); March 1, 2002 (retroactive); Upon passage; April 1, 2002; July 1, 2002.
